Lulu, a fifteen-year-old girl, has always seen her mother depressed. Watching an old home video, Lulu is surprised to see her mother as she used to be – happy, laughing and full of the joys of life. She attempts to reconstruct her mother's happiness by finding the man who made her mother smile . Lulu sets out to find Jacques, her mother's old lover to win the smile back to her. She arranges for the two to meet, but the getting together does not trigger the same impressions for the two.
