The film depicts the Political and cultural history of Kerala. Octagenarian Appamash is a true communist. He had a deep bond with the founders of Communist Movement of Kerala such as P Krishna Pillai and A K Gopalan. The news of death of EM Sankaran Namboodirippad, Communist Leader shocks Appamesthri and kindles fond memories of struggles in him. No one else in Appamesttri's family shares his feeling. Appamesttri regains courage as he confronts his past, but collapses when reality shows its ugly face.
