Vidyadharan, a watch mechanic, is extremely finicky about cleanliness, and is scared of darkness and snakes. His lack of courage forced him to marry a girl of his father's choice and bury his childhood love for Sarojini. His fears reach the limits as Sarojini's 15-year-old daughter is raped and killed. After this incident Vidyadharan's fear grows. In a fateful encounter Vidhyadharan kills the man whom he believe to have killed the girl and gets jailed. In jail, his fears multiply and harrowing hallucinations start haunting.
