The movie is about a Keralite youth whose hopes and aspirations are shattered by a combination of fate and human failing. It explores how society typecasts individuals and forces them to act that part whether they like it or not. The story revolves around Sethumadhavan, son of Achuthan Nair, an idealist Police Constable who wishes to make his son an Inspector. Sethu, a recent college graduate, goes with his father's dream. After a series of tragic events, Sethumadhavan finds himself caught in an inescapable situation where he will have to kill a local goon.
